ADVENTIST CHURCH

Harold N. Bresee, Pastor
Sabbath School Lessons 8 for August 23, 1969
Subject: "Watch Unto Prayer"
Memory Verses: "Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh at even, at midnight or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning." Mark 13:35.
Lesson Outline: Phase 1. The Command to Watch. Q1. Addressed to whole church. Mark 13:37. Q2. To be observed with diligence. Eph. 6:18. Q3. To be accompanied by prayer. Col. 4: 2, Q4. To be combined with service. Rev. 3:2. Phase 2. Reasons for Watching and Praying. Q5. The nearness of Christ's coming. 1 Peter 4:7. Q6. Satan is on our trail 1 Peter 5:8. Q7. A bulwark against temptation Matt. 26:41. Q8. Because of apostasies and deceptions. Acts 20:29-31. Q9. To escape the evils to come. Luke 21:36. Q10 To protect ourselves and the doctrines. I Tim. 4:16. Phase 3 Two classes when Christ comes Q11. The careless, indifferent and unprepared. Luke 12:45,46. Q12. Those who have watched unto prayer and are ready. Luke 12:35-37, I John 3:3.
Lesson Summary — In the 13th chapter of Mark where the words "Watch ye therefore" are recorded, Jesus talking to His disciples, foretells the destruction of the temple at Jerusalem. He warns against the dangers of being deceived, and tells them how they will be hated for the sake of the gospel that is to go to all the world before His return. Verses 2,4 and 25, indicates the nearness of His return, and why we should watch. The church of God is required to fulfill her night watch, however perilous, whether long or short, sorrow is no excuse for her to be less watchful. Tribulation should not lead to carelessness but to double vigilence. If every church member was a living missionary the gospel message for this time would speedily be proclaimed in all countries, to every people and nation and tongue. This is the work that must be done before Christ shall come in power and great glory. We cannot be too watchful against every form of error for Satan is constantly seeking to draw men from the truth. Because we know not the exact time of His coming we are commanded to watch. Those who are watching are purifying their souls by obedience to the truth of Gods Holy Word, May we all Watch and Pray and be ready when He comes.

WOW Makes Donation To Gladstone Rescue Squad

A check in the amount of $200, was donated to the Gladstone Rescue Squad on Aug. 19, 1969, by Camp 71 of Woodmen of the World, Appomattox. Making the presentation was President Roger B. Moore (center) and Vice President Cecil Deaner (right) to squad captain, Leonard Tyree.

The check went toward the purchase of an adjusta ble stretcher (shown foreground) which in the near future will be used in a newly purchased vehicle.

One of the objectives of W. O. W. is to establish a better community in which to live. Each year, Camp 71 make donations of this sort to worthy organizations throughout our area.

Camp 71 congratulates the Gladstone Rescue Squad on their fine work and ask that all persons join the W.O.W in their continuing support to organizations, such as this, for the betterment of this our community.

The Gladstone Rescue Squad serves part of Appomattox,Amherst, Buckingham and Nelson counties.

This cookout is sponsored by some of her friends of the Canaan Baptist Church. Miss Mary Webb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Webb. A 1969 graduate of Carver-Price High School, Appomattox, Va.

FIRST BAPTIST

Homecoming was held at the First Baptist Church last Sunday. Regular preaching service was held at 11:00 a.m. by the pastor. The afternoon service was conducted by Rev. C. L. Elliott and the Mt. Zion Baptist Choir of Appomattox. All present enjoyed both services. Rev. Elliott spoke from the subject: "Heavens On My Mind." Rev. H. O. Flood took part in the service.

We were happy to have our out of town members and visitor to worship with us. Among our members were Mrs. Dorothy Bell and family of West Va., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore Mrs. Hayes Wilson, Mrs. Grashem Sommersville, Mr. Rosser Coleman all of Baltimore, Md. and Rev. and Mrs. Jeffrey and family of Bedford, Va.

We were happy to have members from the Promiseland Baptist Church of Manilla and the Jordan Baptist Church, Appomattox and Mt. Zion. The offering for the day was very good.

Richards Elected By Mental Health

Dr. William D. Richards, Lynchburg psychiatrist, has been elected vice-chairman of the Community Mental Health Services Board of Central Virginia.

At the Thursday meeting, Aug 21, Joseph E. Peckman of Bedford County was re-elected as chairman and Richard T. Buesing of Lynchburg was elected to another term as secretary-treasurer. Also, William A. Roth, of Lynchburg, was named to a second term as executive director.

The 1969-70 budget was approved, unchanged from its first year of $18,350. The board is formed and funded by the cities of Lynchburg and Bedford and the counties of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, and Campbell.

New Sign For Church

In a fine example of cooperation between local church people and a civic group, these Ruritans of Spout Spring assisted the congregation of Spout Spring Baptist Church in the construction of a lighted, outdoor sign for the church grounds. Funds for civic betterment projects come from the Ruritans' various money - raising projects. The Ruritans on this particular evening last week, took time off from their planning meeting for the Labor Day circus to pose for this picture. Proceeds from the two performances of the circus in Appomattox will be added to the treasury in order to complete other projects to help the community and county. Standing beside the new sign are Alec Gordon Davis, Phillip Scruggs, the Rev. L. L. Elliott, church pastor, Sam Davidson, president; Jack Williams, Harry Reynolds, Norman Ferguson and Tom

PAMPLIN

Miss Abbitt Entertains At The Columns

Many preuptial parties have been given honoring Miss Nancy Jane Abbitt, daughter of Judge and Mrs. George Francis Abbitt, Jr. of Appomattox, whose marriage to Robert Elwood Torrence, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Torrence of Concord, took place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Saturday, Miss Corinne Hancock Abbitt, cousin of Miss Abbitt and her bridesmaid, entertained with a brunch at The Columns honoring Miss Abbitt and her attendants.

For the brunch, an arrangement of flowers according to a bridal motif centered the table. Honored guests included Miss Martha Cozart Patterson of Abingdon, Miss Lois LaVerne Torrence of Concord, Miss Julia Anne Guill, both of Appomattox and Mrs. David Woolston Quarrier, sister of the bride and her honor attendant, of West Seneca, N.Y.

Miss Abbitt presented a gift to each of her bridesmaids.

The lady is her cousin, Miss Dora Belle Morris, who owns the section of the mountain she calls "home." Her home was built before the Civil War and this day does not have electric lights or plumbing.

Miss Morris told rescue workers, "The Lord put me here and I'm staying until the Lord takes me away."

Even after begging by another cousin, Mrs. Idell Loving, who had been flown in by helicopter from Charlottesville, the wiry Miss Morris refused to leave.

Torrence - Abbitt Nuptials Held

The marriage of Miss Nancy Jane Abbitt, daughter of Judge and Mrs. George Francis Abbitt Jr. of Appomattox, to Robert Elwood Torrence Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Torrence of Concord, took place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox.

Dr. Thomas Dale Lea, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Jane Morris Richardson, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of crystal white silk organza and peau d'ange lace over peau de soie, designed with sculptured bodice with deep yoke of lace and portrait neckline and short sleeves. The controlled skirt of organza was accented with spray designs of lace and side panels of lace highlighted the very full back which swept into a chapel train. Her veil of embroidered English net was bordered in scalloped Alencon lace and was worn as a mantilla, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white bridal roses and stephanotis centered with a white satin fan and phalenopsis orchids.

Mrs. David Woolston Quarrier, sister of the bride, of West Seneca, N.Y., was honor attendant. She wore a slipper length dress of cherry blossom pink silk organza with window pane print in white. The dress was fashioned with Empire bodice with square neckline, banded puffed sleeves and gathered skirt. Venise lace in white bordered the sleeves and encircled the high rise waistline and tied in a bow and streamers of white ribbon. She carried a white lace fan centered with pink cymbidium orchids and pink and white floor length ribbons.

Other attendants were Miss Corinne Hancock Abbitt of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, Miss Martha Cozart Patterson of Abingdon, Miss Lois La Verne Torrence, of Concord, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Joyce Bennette Carter, and Miss Julia Anne Guill, both of Appomattox. Their gowns were similar to that of the honor attendant and they carried white lace fans centered with pink cymbidium orchids with pink floor length ribbons.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride were hosts for a reception in the garden of their home in Appomattox.

The bride attended St. Andrews Presbyterian College.

The bridegroom is a senior at Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

After a northern wedding trip, the couple will live in Blacksburg.
